Please ensure that the police department or RCMP detachment completing the criminal record check is made aware of the following:

1. The criminal record check must provide search results for both convictions and charges before the courts. A certified criminal record check obtained via fingerprints is not required in most cases. However, if you have a conviction that is not detailed on the criminal record check, you may be required to obtain a more detailed check (see 'I have a criminal record,' section below).
2. This criminal record check is required for licensing purposes. A vulnerable sector search is not required.
3. If the criminal record check requires you to indicate who the information will be shared with, please specify "Lisa Kern, Senior Licensing Supervisor at the Real Estate Council of BC."

If you require additional information, please call the Council's licensing department at 604-683-9664, or toll-free in BC at 1-877-683-9664.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Am I required to provide a Criminal Record Check?

The Council requires that you obtain an original local criminal record check and submit it with your licence application if you are a:

- First-time licence applicant.
- Re-licence applicant (you have been unlicensed for more than 90 days after licence expiry).
- Reinstatement licence applicant (you have been unlicensed for more than 90 days within licence period).
- Director/officer or partner applicant who is not currently licensed or has not been licensed or registered as a director/officer or partner under the Real Estate Services Act in the last 90 days.
- Pre-screening applicant.

The Council may require a criminal record check from any licence applicant when the Council deems it appropriate.

How do I obtain a Criminal Record Check?

Your criminal record check must be completed by either the police department or RCMP detachment where you live, or by a division of the Canadian Corps of Commissionaires. Electronic or web-based criminal record checks are not acceptable.

- Before you visit a police, RCMP, or Commissionaires office, contact them to confirm their hours of operation, fees, and the methods of payment accepted.
- Bring photo identification to verify your identity.
- Print this page and take it with you; it explains that you require a criminal record check for licensing purposes.
- If the criminal record check requires you to indicate who the information will be shared with, please specify "Lisa Kern, Senior Licensing Supervisor at the Real Estate Council of BC."
- If you are aware of a conviction, charge, or incident with the police on your record, obtain your criminal record check from your local RCMP or police department. The Commissionaires will mark your criminal record check as "Rejected," which the Council cannot accept for licensing purposes.

What if I live outside of BC?

Criminal record checks must be from Canada unless otherwise requested or approved by the Council.

If you have lived in a country other than Canada for a significant period within five years of the date of your application, you may be required to provide a criminal record check from that country.

If you live in a province other than BC, follow the procedures outlined on this page with the municipal police agency or RCMP detachment in your community, or a division of Commissionaires. Contact the Council's office if you have questions about obtaining a criminal record check in your province.

When should the Criminal Record Check be completed?

Make sure your criminal record check is completed within 90 days of the date the Council receives your application. If the criminal record check is more than 90 days old, you must have a new check completed.

Will the Council accept a copy of a Criminal Record Check?

No. The Council only accepts an original criminal record check. Do not send a photocopy. Send your application and the original criminal record check to the Council office in one package via mail or courier. Do not email or fax your application. Electronic or web-based criminal record checks are not acceptable.

I have a criminal record. How do I obtain a Criminal Record Check to verify outstanding charges or convictions?

Depending on the RCMP or police department that completes your criminal record check, details of offence(s) may or may not be included. If your criminal record check indicates that you may have a criminal record (conviction) and does not contain detailed information regarding your offence(s), the Council also requires an original Certified Criminal Record Check. This differs from a local criminal record check and you must be fingerprinted in order to obtain it. You must submit both the local criminal record check and the Certified Criminal Record Check to the Council.

- Check with your local RCMP or police department well in advance of submitting your licence application, as the process may take some time. The Certified Criminal Record Check must be dated within 90 days of the date the Council receives your licence application.
- If the search indicates that you may have a current charge against you, in addition to the original criminal record check, you must also provide full details and include court documentation on your licence application form.
- If the search indicates a positive result, you must provide a written statement providing details of the offence or incident, including court documentation, if any.
- If you are aware of a conviction, charge, or incident with the police on your record, you must obtain your criminal record check from your local RCMP or police department. Commissionaires will mark your criminal record check as "Rejected," which the Council cannot accept for licensing purposes.

Am I required to provide photo ID with my application?

The Council requires that you obtain a copy of a piece of valid government-issued photo identification and submit it with your application to the Council if you are a:

- First-time licence applicant.
- Re-licence applicant (you have been unlicensed for more than 90 days after licence expiry).
- Reinstatement licence applicant (you have been unlicensed for more than 90 days within licence period).
- Director/officer or partner applicant who is not currently licensed or has not been licensed or registered as a director/officer or partner under the Real Estate Services Act in the last 90 days.

The Council may require a piece of government-issued photo identification from any licence applicant when the Council deems it appropriate.

What kind of identification is acceptable?

The photo identification that you provide must:

- have been issued by a provincial or territorial government of Canada, by the Government of Canada, or by another state or federal government;
- be valid (not expired) at the time it is provided, or
- if the photo identification does not have an expiry date, must have been issued within the last 5 years; and
- must contain your full legal name.

Please ensure that your full legal name on the photo identification exactly matches the full legal name provided on your criminal record check and on the application form you submit.

Acceptable forms of identification include:

- Motor Vehicle Driver's Licence,
- Passport,
- Nexus Card,
- Canadian Citizenship Certificate Card,
- Permanent Resident Card, and
- Certificate of Indian Status Card.

The copy of the photo identification you submit with your application must be clear and legible. If you wish to provide a form of photo identification that is not listed above, please email lic@recbc.ca. The use of other forms of identification must be pre-approved by the Council.

When should the photo identification be submitted?

Submit the copy of your valid government-issued photo identification along with your licence application package to the Council.

Licence applications that do not include a copy of valid photo identification will not be processed.

Will the Council accept a black and white copy of my photo identification?

The Council recommends that you submit a colour photocopy of your valid government-issued identification.

The Council will accept grayscale photocopies as well, as long as they are clear and meet the requirements for valid, government-issued photo identification.
