BC Financial Services Authority (“BCFSA”) is the integrated regulator for B.C.’s financial services sector. BCFSA’s accountabilities cover financial institutions (credit unions, insurance companies and trust companies), pension plans, real estate, mortgage brokers and deposit insurance.

BCFSA is committed to diversity, equity and inclusion in all that it does. This includes when BCFSA engages with any individual who seeks a licence, registration, approval, review, determination, decision or order from BCFSA pursuant to its statutory powers.

BCFSA has set out its commitment to providing accommodation in those interactions in BCFSA Accommodation Statement.

If you any questions regarding the Accommodation Statement, please email us at info@bcfsa.ca.
