

Observer Guidelines for Meetings of the Real Estate Council of BC

Members of the public, licensees and media professionals are welcome to attend meetings of the Real Estate Council of BC as observers.

We ask that observers read and agree to abide by the following guidelines:

1. Observers are reminded that they are not participants in the meeting and must remain quiet throughout the proceedings. Any inappropriate conduct may result in the observer being asked to leave.
2. The Council Chair, at his/her discretion, may limit those attending to the number of available seats in the meeting room.
3. Cameras, recording devices, drawing or sketching are not permitted, and all mobile devices must be turned off before entering the meeting room.
4. The Chair may designate, at his/her discretion, some agenda items of the Council meeting as “no observers” and ask the observers to leave during the discussion of these items.
